1986

As one stands looking at the Statue of Liberty encased in her iron cocoon, one thinks about the liberties and freedoms that Manhasset High School's graduating class enjoyed in America. In a year in which terrorism, AIDS, political struggles, and varied disasters occurred, there remained those events that will forever represent a world of people striving for the common good.

The varied terrorist attacks occupied a large part of the world's attention: the hijacking of a TWA and an Egypt Air jet, the taking of the Achille Lauro, Paris and London Bombings, and the continued hostage crisis in Lebanon.

The AIDS scare was an issue on everyone's mind and the disease from which the celebrated Rock Hudson died.

Political struggles threatened world peace at various times: The apartheid in South Africa, the dictator Duvalier fleeing Haiti, the contras in Nicaraga, the removal of Marcos in favor of Corazon Aquino, and the New York City scandal.

Unfortunate disasters and deaths occurred and the world mourned in unison: the destruction of the space shuttle Challenger and its seven astronauts, earthquakes in Mexico City, mudslides in California and Columbia, and the numerous airplane crashes including the JAL jet carrying 520 people and the Delta jet carrying 160. As well, the world bid farewell to the famous people who passed away: Yul Brynner, Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., Roger Maris, Marc Chagall, Konstantin Chernenko, Ruth Gordon, Donna Reed, Leon and Marilyn Klinghoffer, Samantha Smith, Eugene Ormandy, Orson Welles, E. B. White, and John Ringling North.

Noteworthy events which dominated our interest included: Live Aid, which one billion people witnessed. Voyager 2 and data on Uranus, the return of Halley's Comet, the Chicago Bears won the Superbowl 46-10, Kansas City took the World Series, everyone loved Rambo, Back to the Future, Miami Vice, Madonna, the Boss, MTV; the Muppets turned 30, and computers were everywhere.

Looking at the Statue of Liberty which will be 100 years old this year, one realizes that the world, however large it may seem, must continue to work for peace and unity. From the Reagan-Gorbachev talks to Live Aid and USA for Africa, people were obviously striving to achieve this goal. We, the class of 1986, are tomorrow's leaders, and it will fall upon us to use what we have learned in our years at Manhasset High School to continue to uphold the torch of freedom that the Lady has held for 100 years.

We, the class of 1986, feel that you deserve recognition. At one time or another each of us has experienced your friendly smile. You have taught us not only how things work in the classroom, but your coaching on the field has perhaps had an even greater influence on us. Encouragement and support are the two best pillars you have provided, and your determination always helped to fuel ours. We are tomorrow's leaders, and, thanks to you, our sense of achievement and our desire to succeed have been heightened. Your contributions to each of us will not be wasted. With deep appreciation for your help to us, we are proud to dedicate this yearbook to you, Mr. Donald Scott.

To the Class of 1986:

I am hopeful that we have provided you with a sound education. The education has been sound if we have taught you how to learn. Through learning you become a better person: a person who understands that only the strong are gentle, a person who understands that part of being brave is to fear. Learning shows us that the purpose of life is to do something that makes a difference. Unless you understand the importance of learning all else we have taught you will be of no value. You are all unique individuals and you must discover that uniqueness. Once you have discovered and developed your special gifts, then the greatest contribution you can make to society is your uniqueness.

Thank you for all you have contributed to Manhasset High School. Go out into the world and continue to give to yourself so that you can give to others.

SENIOR BANQUET

On September 30, seniors, parents and faculty members gathered at the Swan Club for an evening of dining and entertainment. A faculty chorus sang "Together." Parents presented a hilarious parody of senior life as they remembered it. Jane Muir, representing the senior class, recited a dramatic monologue. This was a first-time event. All agreed it should become an annual affair as everyone had a fantastic time.

The 1985 Field Hockey team completed a challenging season with a 6-4-1 record. Practice including a 2.7 mile run and rigorous "footwork" under Coach Monfort, Manhasset was in shape for some serious hockey. Making it to the playoffs was exciting but it was soon downset by the teams and perhaps unfair loss to Clarke. Top scorers for the team being Sabrina Gallagher, Robin Body, and Tara Breen. Also supporting the forward line were seniors Vicky Buhr and Suzanne Zeuschner. The team was backed by a strong, experienced defense of seniors Christine Henning, Ali Waldbaum, Caroline Casamassima, Joan Iskyan, Chrissy Lombard, and Deirdre Pavlides who were led by outstanding players Kitty Howard and Bret Conifrey. These two defensemen were also chosen to represent Manhasset in the Exceptional Seniors Game. This large team included many younger talents who will lead the 1986 field hockey team to an unprecedented victory!!

J.V. TEAM

VOLLEYBALL

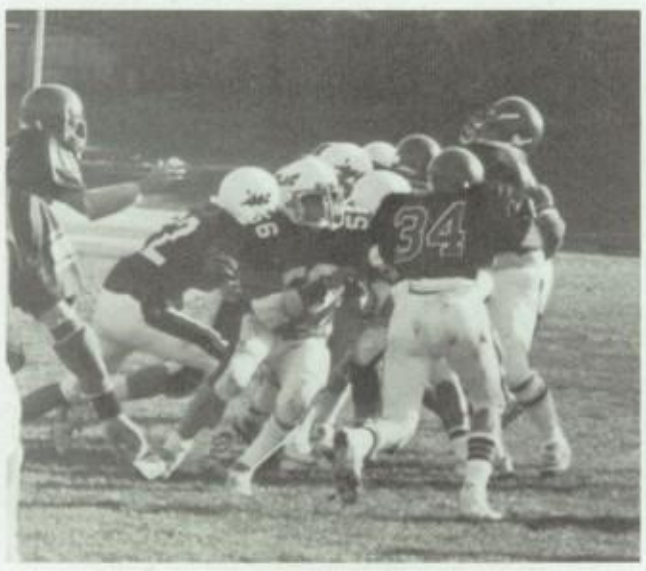
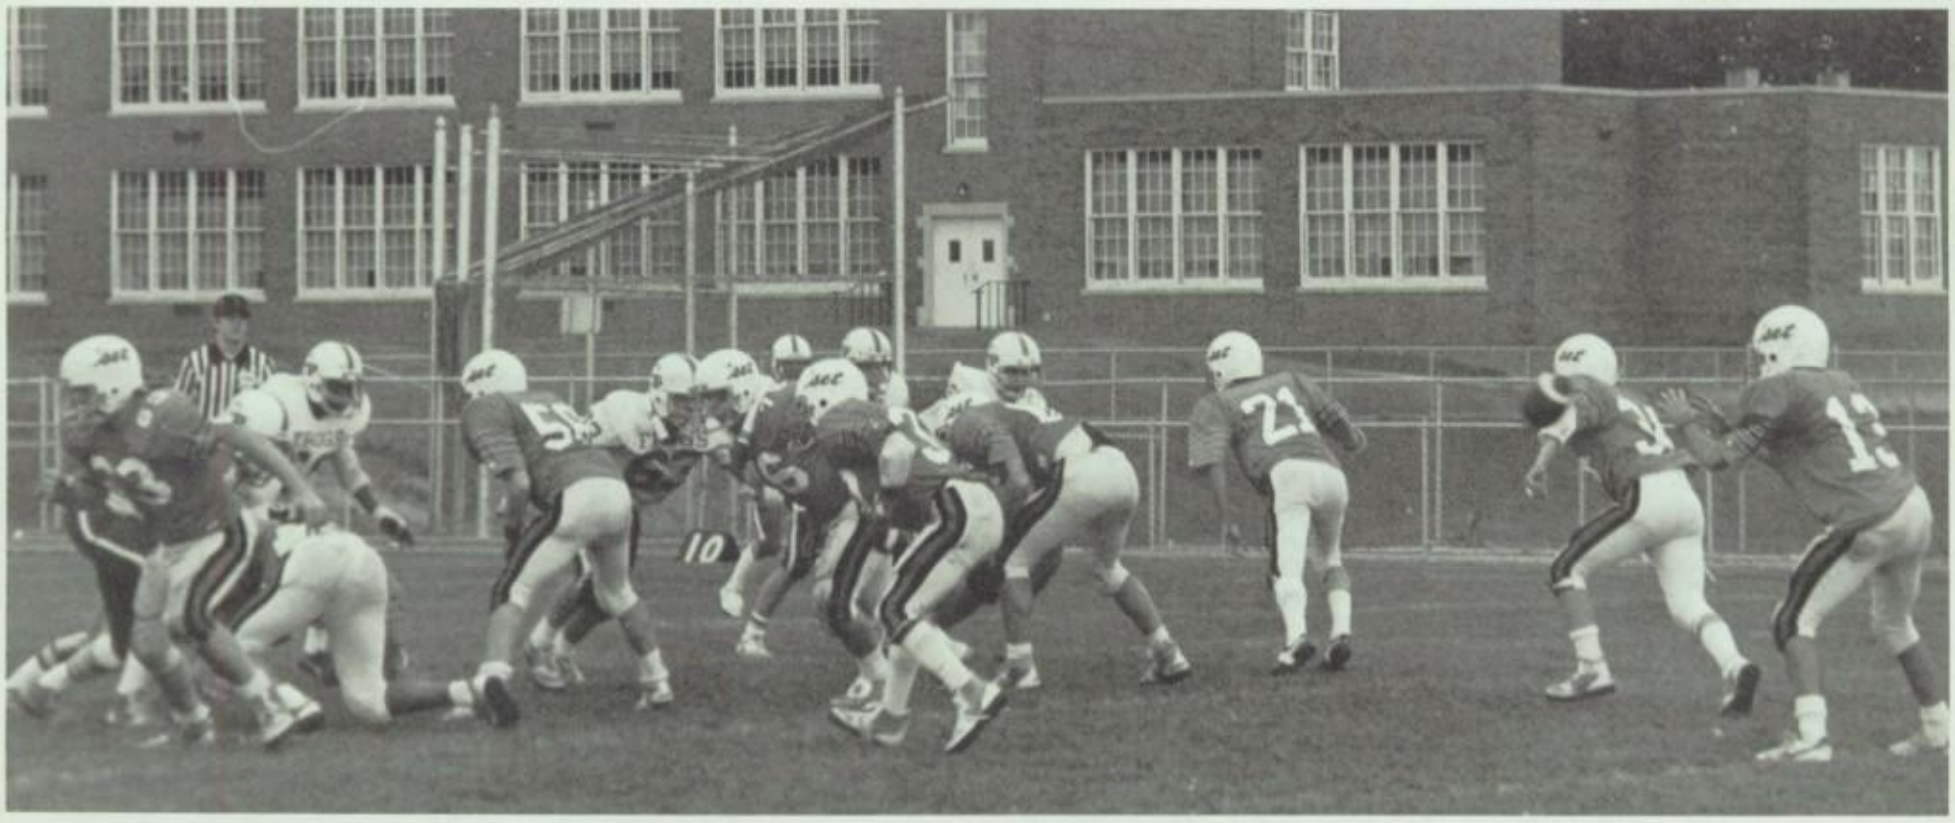
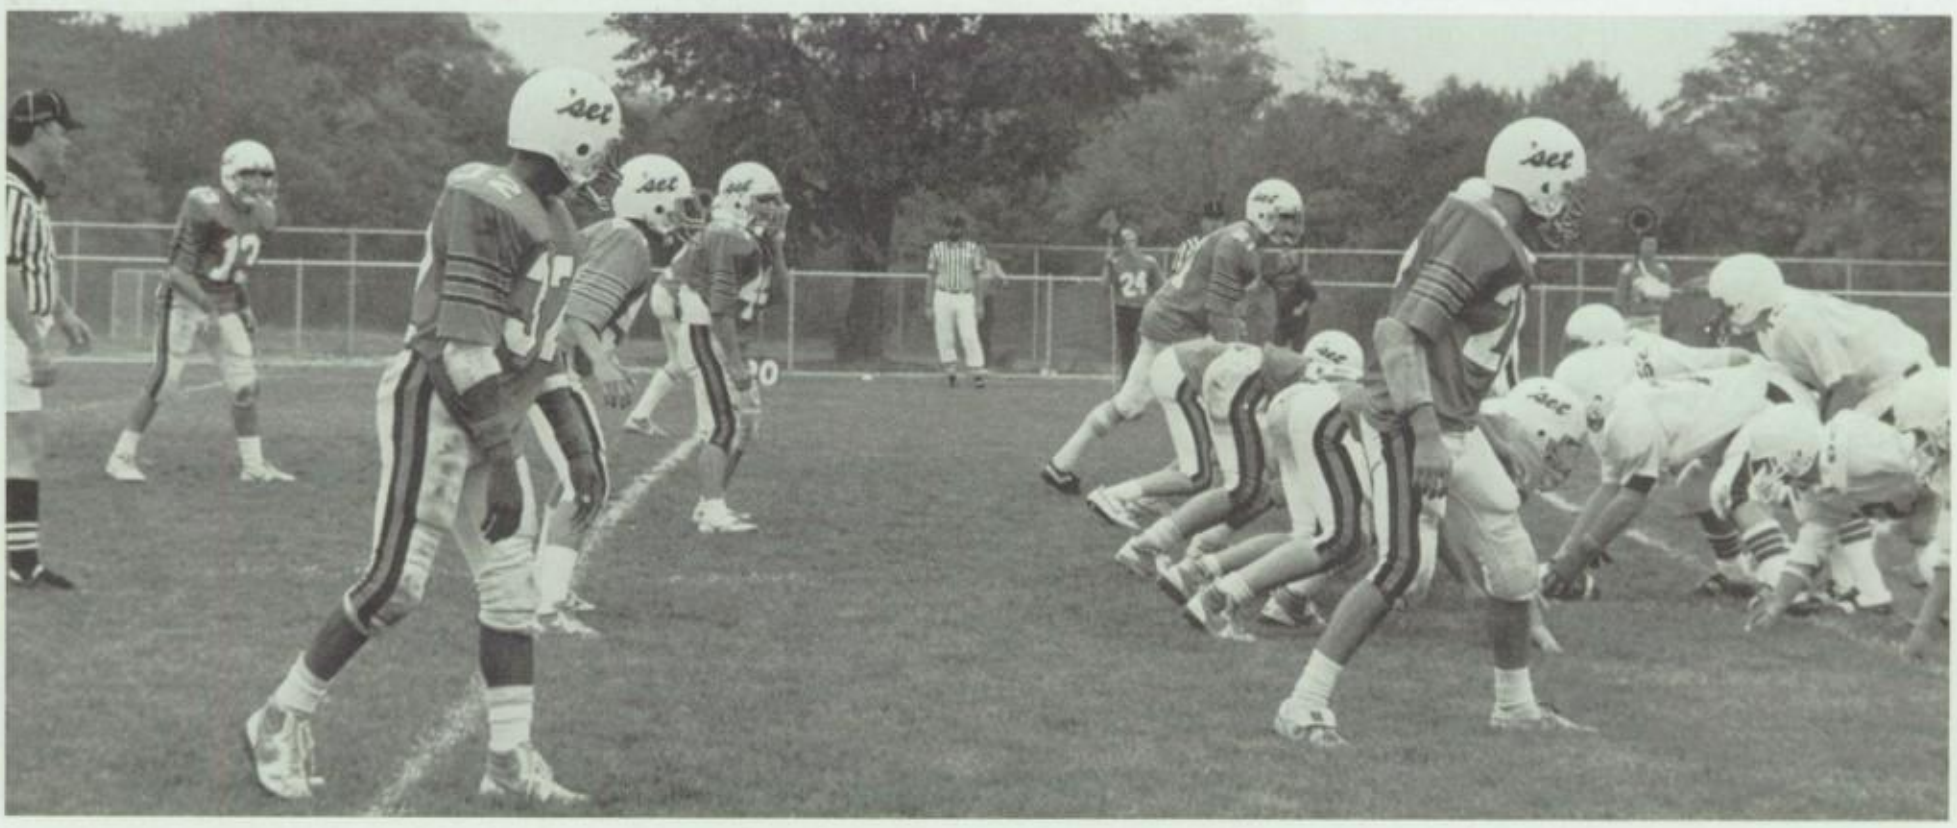
Led by co-captains Tom Keating and Peter Kang the Manhasset Indian Football Team finished with a disappointing record of 1-7. In spite of many injuries team spirit remained high throughout the season. Tom Keating and Tim Reilly made the All-Conference Team. Coach Cherry and the undergraduate members of the team are looking forward to a better season next year.







CROSS COUNTRY

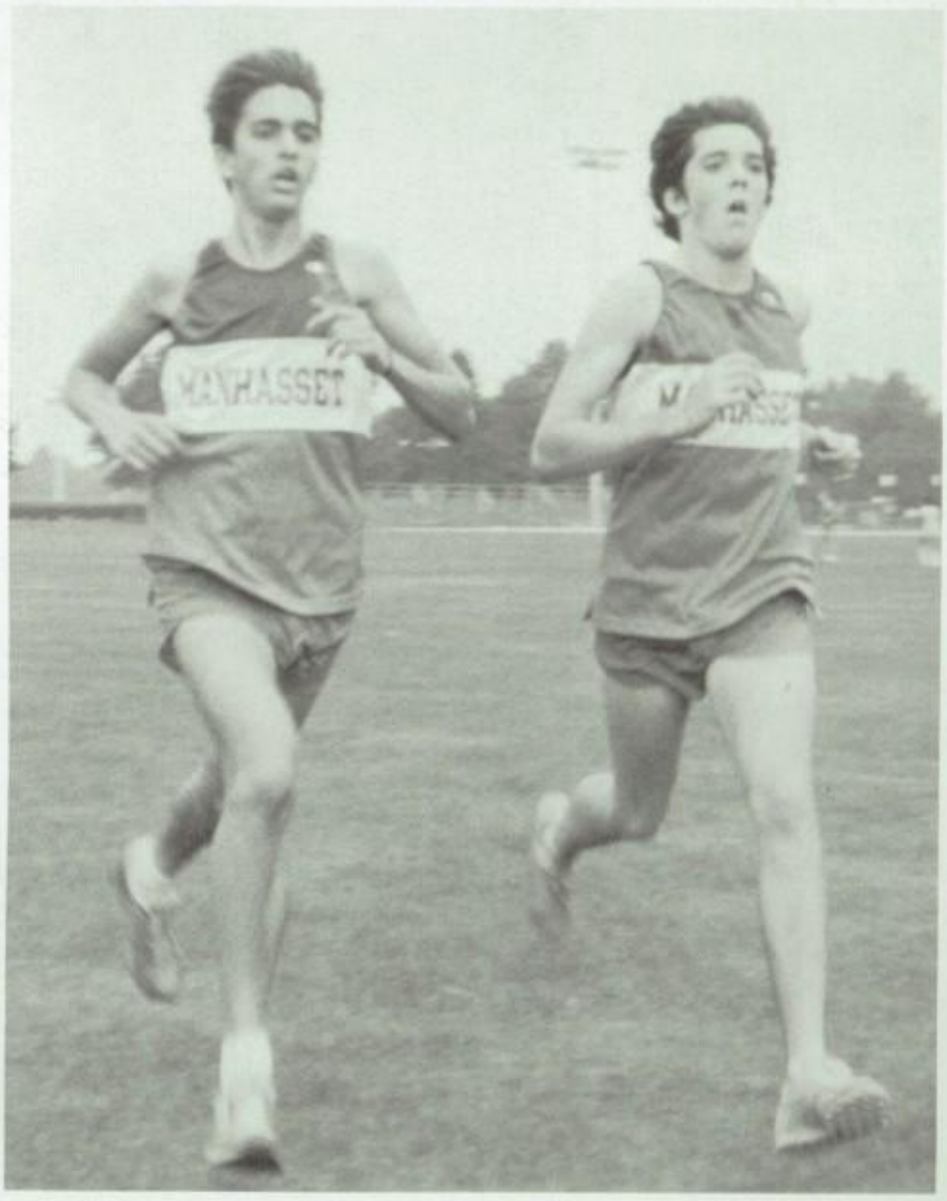
The varsity cross-country team once again had an excellent season. The team had a record of 10-0 which gave them undefeated Division and Conference Champions. The team also placed 3rd in the Nassau Country B races. All-County runners were Dan Reilly, Bill Reilly, Tom Dunne, John Leonetti, and Andrew Weber.



TENNIS

Top: L-R: E. Studness, L. Scala, K. Rodier, Coach Dorman. Kneeling: P. Reuter, M. Buzzitta, P. Pavlides, N. Kavanagh, H. Grace. Seated: J. Sosa, L. Fornasar, and K. Armenio. Missing: K. Maier.

This was a very important rebuilding year for the girls' varsity tennis team. Led by senior Lauren Fornasar, the team had a disappointing record of 2 and 9. Coach Dorman said "I really anticipate the up and coming freshmen and sophomores to add much depth to next year's team."

Lauren teamed up with Karen Armenio in the Nassau County Individual Tournament. They were the finalists in this tournament and thus qualified for the state tourament at Syracuse. Playing well, they finished fourth. Both were awarded county, conference, and state honors. Lauren also received recognition for being and ALL-AMERICAN tennis player. She received this award for her performance over the past three years in winning the County Championship twice and the State Title once.

The girls cross-country team had a very successful season. Captain and MVP Allison Schutte led the team to a second place finish in the division and third in the conference. Although many of the team members were injured, the team finished an impressive sixth in the county. All-division runners Allison Schutte and Jill Koch and all conference runner Nancy Rosseland were backed up by a strong team including Bonny Rozzo, Chrissy Murphy, Patty Moufarage, Patty Jennings, and Kim Bianco.
